

STUDENT COUNCILLOR

Municipality of Greenstone Council
Term: September 2023 – June 2024

Date Posted: March 30, 2023

GENERAL

The Municipality of Greenstone Council wishes to offer the opportunity for two (2) students (1 from GCHS and 1 from ESCJ) to sit on the Council as a representative of the youth in the Municipality. This will be a unique leadership opportunity. The successful students will have the opportunity to learn: how the municipal level of government works, how citizens are represented, how decisions are made, how budget is distributed across the municipality, how priorities are established and many other important components of local governance. The successful applicant will have the opportunity of representing the voice of Greenstone Youth at the Council table.

POSITION QUALIFICATIONS

- Resident of the Municipality of Greenstone attending GCHS or ESCJ
- Entering grade 10 – 12 in the 2023 fall semester

APPLICATION PROCESS

The application will include:

- A letter of application and resume including name, address, and qualifications of applicant
- An indication the individual will serve if appointed
- A one-page essay, by the student describing the student's interest in the position
- Letters of reference from a teacher and student
- Any other pertinent information that will help Council in its consideration
- A committee will establish a short list of eligible applicants to be brought to a student vote at each High School.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Report on agenda issues of interest and concern to youth, and communicate back to youth in general
- Attend Regular Council evening meetings as a non-voting member (not including closed sessions)

Applicants must apply in writing by no later than 4:00 p.m. on May 5, 2023 to:
