

STUDENT CADET INFORMATION GUIDE

GREENSTONE FIRE & EMERGENCY SERVICES

INTRODUCTION FROM THE CHIEF

Thank you for your interest in becoming a Student Cadet with Greenstone Fire & Emergency Services. Being a member of the fire service is a unique and rewarding experience like no other. There is much to be gained in this environment that challenges you to learn, perform and grow professionally. The field is continuously evolving, offering ample opportunities for skills development, experience, and industry recognized certifications.

GFES operates four fire stations with 14 front-line apparatus and approximately 50 members, with room for many more! The core services provided are fire suppression, automobile extrication/rescue, shore based water/ice rescue, wildland fire suppression, and hazardous materials response. The service receives between 150-200 calls for service annually on average between all stations.

There are exciting things coming to GFES that are tremendous opportunities for new members. GFES is currently working towards developing in-house programs for National Fire Protection Association certification, exploring options for DZ class drivers licence training, first aid certification, incident management, and other continuous learning opportunities.

As a Student Cadet, you will begin to experience the world of emergency services and become familiar with the fire department. There will be opportunities to participate in training, events, and assist in operations. This is a great way to earn valuable certifications, skills, experience, and be compensated for it. This program is meant as a bridge to becoming a Volunteer Firefighter with the service once you meet the eligibility requirements.

With opportunity comes commitment. The expectation of this role is that you actively participate in opportunities that are offered. It is expected that you will participate in training in order to meet legislative and departmental requirements. There is a fair time commitment required in order to be successful in this role and get the most out of the experience. Beyond participating, you are expected to conduct yourself as a role model not only within your team, but also in public as you will become known in the community as a member of the fire service.

The team environment is very positive. This role challenges members to work together in stressful, fast paced environments to achieve common goals. You will become very close with your team members and have many common experiences. This is a great way to meet good people.

This guide was developed to help you understand the requirements and expectations of the role.

Please read this guide thoroughly so that you clearly understand the steps in the recruitment process and expectations of you as a member.

Thank you, and I look forward to welcoming you as a member in the near future!

Adam Lopatka, Fire Chief

ORGANIZATION

A typical Fire Department is comprised of a variety of divisions and functions. Firefighters are often required to fulfill responsibilities within several divisions and functions.

Administration:

- Budget, reports, records, planning and policy development

Fleet and Equipment:

- Purchase and maintenance of apparatus, equipment, and communication services

Suppression or Operations:

- Prevent, control and extinguishment of fires
- Investigate fires
- Perform rescue and salvage operations
- Respond and assist at such emergencies as may be required
- Pre-plan

Fire Prevention:

- Conduct inspections
- Enforce prevention laws (federal, provincial, and municipal)
- Examination of plans
- Public education functions

Training:

- Administer training programs relative to the services delivered
- Prepare and conduct examinations of members

TRAINING AND PARTICIPATION

The fire service has evolved into a public safety agency providing highly technical and diverse services. The general public has come to rely on the Fire Department as the “first responder” not only when life and property are threatened, but for other problems as well.

To ensure that all members of the Fire Department are prepared to deliver the best level of services required, training standards have been developed to provide each member with the needed skills, knowledge, and abilities necessary to deliver fire and emergency services to the citizens of the municipality.

Regular training nights at stations are:

Beardmore – 1st and 3rd Tuesday of each month

Geraldton – 2nd and 4th Tuesday of each month

Nakina – Every Wednesday

Longlac – Alternating Tuesday Evenings

Additional training requirements or optional opportunities may be a part of or in addition to regular training nights. New members should plan to participate in most or all scheduled training nights at least until they become fully certified.

Minimum Training Requirements

1. Upon being offered and accepting membership, there are online modules that must be completed covering basic expectations of the Municipality, and health and safety topics.
2. First Aid courses are offered periodically by the fire department. You will be expected to obtain at least Standard First Aid with CPR level C (or CSA Intermediate level) early in your membership.
3. Other ongoing training opportunities as offered or prescribed.

Training is provided in accordance with accredited standards.

SELECTION PROCESS

The selection process will consist of the following components:

Stage 1: Application Submission and Review

Stage 2: Interview and References

Stage 1: Application Submission and Review

All applicants are required to submit an Application Form or resume with the same information, completed Medical Self-Declaration, completed Criminal History Self-Declaration, and completed Student Cadet Membership Terms form.

Applications will be reviewed by Administration. If the station is at or near capacity, priority will be given to those best suited to meet the needs of the department.

A review of applications will be conducted, and selected applicants will have the opportunity to advance to Stage 2 of the selection process.

Stage 2: Interview and References

Interviews for the membership positions will be conducted by Administration. You may be required to bring documentation to support your application or any claims made in it.

The references provided will be contacted and asked a series of questions regarding your intentions in joining the department, suitability for the role and ability to perform expectations. As this is a position of trust that works in a team environment, there are also questions related to team dynamics, reflection on the organization, and integrity of physical access and information security.
